The Adelphian Society was founded in 1949. The club was formed for the purpose of uniting girls of similar interests and objectives in a cohesive organization whose purposes are two-fold, one to further the development of the individual member by supplying beneficial activities, and two, to develop the individual to be an active and influential part of the college.

Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity with over 500 chapters. It has a national magazine, a national coat of arms, and a national and sectional conventions to which members are invited. The principals that guide this fraternity are friendship, leadership and service. The brothers of this fraternity provide service to the campus, the community and to the chapter itself. This past year the fraternity completed building a ski slope for the college which is located behind the soccer field. In addition to service, social activities including parties and pledge banquets are also encouraged. Pledging is open to all male college students regardless of any other organization they may belong to. Pledging is composed mostly of service, and becoming acquainted with the fraternity and its brothers. It does not include any hazing.

The Esoteric Society is an organization on campus whose primary goal is to foster brotherhood within the college community. In doing this they believe that honor, charity and zeal are the necessary components for a good character and that these elements should be well developed within each individual.

At the same time the Esoteric Society tries to promote social activities for the college as a whole in an attempt to develope greater student relationships.

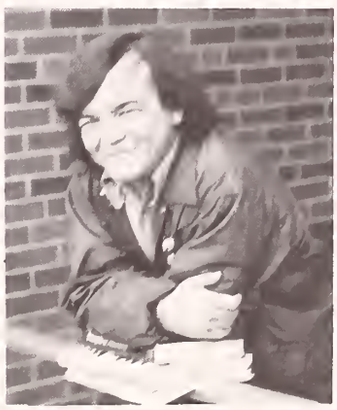
THE FENWICKS



Founded in 1921, the Gavaleer Society is the oldest fraternal organization on campus. The Society was organized with the intention of supplying college social activities which would enrich the experiences of its members. The purposes have been more than realized and the Society has bound a group of young men together with ties that are not easily broken.

One of the oldest and more hallowed men's organizations on the campus, The MOHAWK Club was founded in 1924 and officially chartered by Fitchburg State College in 1927. The club was organized by a group of young men from the Berkshires who were interested in hiking, running, and other athletic activities. The idea of getting together with the closest of friends and to be in the outdoors was dear to their hearts.

Over the years, the idea of brotherhood and unity has grown. Today, at the age of 48, the club is as active on the campus as ever and the spirit of the brothers is dauntless as we look forward to a 50th anniversary.

By its founding in 1968, the Neasylon Society brought to three the number of women's clubs at Fitchburg State. Realizing the increasing size of the female population of the student body, the individuals who initiated the club felt the need for another women's organization on campus, now and especially in the years to come.

The Sisters of the Philodemic Society have spent another active and enjoyable year at Fitchburg State College.

In the Spirit of sisterhood they have involved themselves in academic areas, community services and social functions with other clubs.

With the sadness of departure, graduating sisters and the remaining sisters are looking foreward to another successful year with memories of their own to build.

In Appreciation!

In a person's life, the most important people are usually those who are honest, open, and genuinely concerned with events around them. Ms. Rose Marie Esposito and Mr. Dave Settle have given many unselfish hours to the class of 1972 in their roles as class advisors. Thank you both for teaching us freedom, involvement and love.

"For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its reatless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.
And when you have reached the mountain top,
then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs,
then you shall truly dance"
